“ I have known Bruce for some time and we worked shows together for years.. We finally were able to work together for 2 GIG this past several years. We would talk a couple of times a week on average usually business , but a bit about life and family. He was a great guy and one I can call a friend. I will miss him and pray that he and his family will find comfort with our lord Jesus Christ. Also that this reminds us all that life is a gift and that we should show the love for each other every day.
