“ To a wonderful hardworking and loving man, who loved kids and his family. He was a great neighbor and always made everyone smile while he was around. He enjoyed giving sweets to little kids, including my daughter when he called her his little boy. You will be missed greatly and Caroline will miss you greatly too! Don't sell too many watermelons up in heaven.....your neighbors will be ready to see you at the gate of heaven. Now you can go to every NASCAR track for free....we miss and love you!
