“ I will always remember Vic coming in to the old Grady Miller's motorcycle shop in Greenville...with his direct manner, sly humor and loud voice we'd swap tales of being on the road riding or just to catch up on new gossip in the biker world. He always glowed when he talked about his daughter Melissa and how proud he was that she could ride any motorcycle, anywhere. In particular, I remember one conversation with him about Melissa getting married to Gary. He was really pleased that they were together, he said plainly "I ain't losing a daughter, I'm gaining a motorcycle mechanic!" RIP old friend.

“ I hate to hear of Vic’s passing, I’m sorry for your loss. He was a good man who took care of us kids in Pleasant Grove. Vic hauled us all over Greer, he even took us to the Greenville Memorial Auditorium to watch wrestling, it was a blast!
