“ Memories of the good times I shared with Sterling will always be with me. Loved his constant smile, and appreciated his athletic skills. Admired his career choice to teach life-lessons to young people. Pray that their faith will comfort Jayne, Will, and Nathan with the knowledge that their separation from their husband/father is temporary. Meanwhile, Sterling is enjoying his rebirth in the Kingdom of God!!!

“ My first introduction to Sterling 23 years ago was at a dinner hosted at the Remaley's. We were to bring our steaks to be grilled. My husband John had picked out 2 T-bone steaks for us. They were massive. Sterling looked at my plate with that steak filling it and said, "When you've eaten all you can of that, I'll eat the rest!" Little did Sterling know that I had been on Weight Watchers for more than a year, and this was the most meat I'd seen in that length of time. I finished and sucked the bone dry! He looked at that bone in amazement and said, "Good grief, Marilyn, a dog wouldn't even get anything out of what's left!" We became friends, and I'll miss him.
