

Callen Parris

August 18, 2025 - August 18, 2025

With broken hearts, we announce the passing of our precious son, Callen Drew Parris, who was born sleeping on August 18, 2025. His tiny hands, his perfect face, and his quiet presence reminded us that love does not need time to grow.

Though Callen never took a breath in this world, he filled our hearts with more love than we ever thought possible. Callen will always be cherished by his parents, Reid and Andrew Parris, and his proud big brother, Cohen. He is also deeply loved by his grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins, and all who eagerly awaited his arrival.

We will never measure his life in days or years, but in the depth of love he brought to our family. His story is one of beauty, hope, and the unbreakable bond between a child and those who longed for him.

Callen will always be part of our family's story - woven into our laughter, our quiet moments, and our love for one another. His life, though brief, will never be forgotten.

"Before we held you, we loved you. Before you were here, we dreamed of you. And now, forever, we carry you."

"As long as I'm living, forever my baby you'll be."

A private gathering will be held to honor our son, and in his memory, we ask simply for love, gentleness, and kindness to be shared with those around you. To share condolences or message of love, please visit www.thewoodmortuary.com.

Know that you are not alone--you have family, friends and a community that loves you, but most importantly you have a loving Lord that is holding you close now and will not leave you in this hour of need.
