“ Sending condolences to David, Janie, and Lonnie and their families. I fondly remember walleye cheeks! I rented the little house next to them for a bit. Carl and Jane were such nice people. I respected Mr. Abbattista greatly.

“ Carl was a second father to me. He was a mentor , coach and role model. I had nothing but admiration for him and the way he lived his life. He was my father’s best friend and he and Jane were Godparents to my sister Debby. I have so many fond memories of Carl but some of the best were simply sitting around the kitchen table, eating and philosophizing. Food was Love at the Abbattistas — and nobody went hungry.

“ Uncle Carl,

You will be deeply missed. I am so glad that I was able to come down in April 2019 and have a wonderful visit with you and Aunt Jane in northern Georgia at your beautiful home. I know you are in heaven with Aunt Jane and my mom having such a great time together again.

Love,

Jason

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Carl was an amazing man and I was Blessed to be one of his friends. Carl and Jane allowed Terie and I to call them Mom and Dad and we loved them dearly. The love they felt for each other and their family was obvious to all who knew them. We shared many great meals and good times together and we enjoyed hearing them speak of their times before we met, when they lived in upstate New York and Canada. Even now it is impossible to think of them without smiling, knowing they are together again.

Keeping all the Abbattista's in our Prayers. 🙏🙏🙏

We are so sorry to hear about your Dad. He was a special man. One of the kindest and most gentle people we know. I so missed my pop in visits with him and your Mom. Their stories were priceless and we always talked basketball among everything else. I know it must be hard losing them. I can hear your Mom saying "Carl, what took you so long". Much love ❤️

“ Carl was a great friend and mentor. The first time I found a bag of tomatoes he placed in my mailbox, I knew we would be good friends! He helped us in times of need without hesitation. I'm blessed he came into my life.
