

Carl W. Niemitalo

December 27, 1921 - April 20, 2019

Carl W. Niemitalo, 97, of Inman, passed away Saturday, April 20, 2019 at Ashlan Village Assisted Living, Lyman, SC.

Carl was born December 27, 1921 to Charles and Hilja Niemitalo, in Belden, ND. He was the youngest of three surviving children of a family of five.

Carl farmed in North Dakota, served in the US Navy in WWII as an Aviation Radio Man Second Class, 1942-1946 and a member of Apostolic Lutheran Church. He met Martha (Margie) Kinnunen and they were married November 25, 1950. Carl began his family in Belden while farming and started his life in the ministry which developed into foreign mission work which he loved.

Surviving are his children, Linda (Glen) Mattson, Donna (Thomas) Weisser, Debbie (Fratt) Aho, Brian (Shana) Niemitalo, Bruce (Brenda) Niemitalo, Patti (Shane) Juuti, Craig Niemitalo, Scott (Karen) Niemitalo and James (Heidi) Niemitalo; one brother, John Niemitalo; forty-five grandchildren; fifty-eight great-grandchildren; three great-great-grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews.

Carl is preceded in death by his parents; two brothers, Martin and Veiko, as infants; one sister, Aileen Fields; his wife, Margie (2010); one son, David Charles Niemitalo (1976) and four grandchildren.

Visitation will be held 1:00 p.m. Tuesday, April 23, 2019 at The Wood Mortuary, Greer, SC, with funeral services to follow at 2:00 p.m. conducted by Jim Kurtti. Burial will be Friday, April 26, 2019 at the Belden Finnish Cemetery, Belden, ND.

The family is at the home.

“ God's peace to all! With loving thoughts and memories of Carl from all of us here at the Astoria, OR congregation. He served us here in Astoria for many years. He was a faithful servant of God and we treasure his sermons. He spoke to our hearts in a wonderful way and was always an encouragement in faith for us. God gave him remarkable understanding of the scriptures. Our prayers are for all the Niemitalo family. We have many, many, of his sermons archived and digitized if anyone wishes MP3's or links to the sermons please contact us: phebejohnson@charter.net ”

“ Carl was such a great friend of my father Ralph Davidson. I used to LOVE listening to them visit in our living room and kitchen. I am in possession of cd's with conversation of them on some of their Guatemala trips. They shared such deep spiritual enlightenments. Later on, I was blessed with receiving Carl's radio sermons. He was a voice for God's word. No flowery sermons there. Basic truth. May God bless the family members in your loss. God's Peace! Marie Luther, MN
