“ I remember Carmon as being the sweetest, most caring person and always smiling! It started raining as I was walking to school and I ducked into Bishop Grocery Store. I was wet and cold. Carmon brought a towel and dried my hair. There was a pot belly stove in the store and it dried my clothes in no time. I will never forget Carmon's smiling face!

Carmon was the sweetest lady and loved by many. She was very active at Fairview and I remember her beautiful singing. Heaven gained an angel who will be dearly missed here on earth. Prayers for Lee, Stacey and family during this difficult time 🙏🙏
