“ Carrol was a fun loving girl. We were close friends in junior high school. I always enjoyed being with Carrol and her family. I lost contact with Carrol after she moved to College Park and often thought of her. Sarah, you were a baby when I last saw your Mother. She was so proud of you, you were such a beautiful baby. May your fondest memories stay close to your heart. God bless each and everyone of you. Ann Shore##imported-begin##Anna Shore Coffee##imported-end##

“ Dear Jean and family, I was saddened to hear of Carrol's passing on Thanksgiving Day. While I have not been around her in many years, Uncle Jack always showed me pictures and kept me informed of her wonderful family and life. So sorry that her life was cut short. Know that my family is praying for you and yours at this time. Love, Pam, Rodney, Stuart and Zachary##imported-begin##Pamela Dicks Rawlinson##imported-end##
