“ Brandy, I haven't seen you in a while, but I just wanted to say that I am so sorry to hear about your dad. I know he will definitely be missed at BI-LO. Every time I would pass him in the hallway I would say hey to him. However, I know that he is in a much better place than we are and we'll see him again one day. I will keep you and your family in my prayers.##imported-begin##Mandy Page Mayfield##imported-end##

“ To Cecil's family. You have my prayers and thoughts constantly. I knew him when he worked for Argil Moon Grocery and then worked with him for over thirty years at BI-LO. We shared many laughs and good times. I thank the good Lord that his suffering is over and I know that he is in the best hands ever. We will see him again one day and he will be smiling more than ever.##imported-begin##Bobby Barton##imported-end##

“ Attitude w/a Smile - that's what I think of when I think of Cecil. He always had a great, positive attitude. He always spoke, always had a smile and was very kind. He was a dedicated worker and did whatever was needed to get the job done. We will all miss him very much at BI-LO.##imported-begin##Deb Faber##imported-end##

“ I have known Cecil for over 25 years through working with him at BI-LO. He was a very dear friend of mine. He was a man of great honesty and integrity and I know that he had a strong personal relationship with the Lord. He made a positive impact on the lives of many people. Although he has gone on to be with the Lord, he will be remembered by all those that knew him. He will be greatly missed, but I know we will one day be reunited together in the presence of the Lord Jesus. My deepest sympathy is extended to his family. May you sense God's strength and peace during this difficult time. God bless!##imported-begin##James Wiles##imported-end##

“ Dear Cecil,
Jesus heard when you prayed yesterday. He talked with God about you. Jesus was there when you fought your fight. He knew when you shed those tears you did not weep alone. The burdens that were too heavy to bear, he made them His own. Rest now my friend. I'm thankful for the place you had in my journey. I'll see you on the other side. Love in Christ to you and yours.##imported-begin##Cathy L. McCall##imported-end##
