“ *My Son
in Heaven
They say there is a reason
They say time will heal;
Neither time or reason
Will change the way i feel.
Gone are the days We used to share,
But in my heart
You are always there.
The gates of memories
Will never close;
I miss you more than
Anybody knows...
Love and miss you everyday
Till we meet again
Always & Forever*

“ I was very fortunate to have met Chandler when he was a patient at Cleveland Clinic. I was his nurse, and we became instant friends when we started talking about our love for Mustangs and junk food. I brought him a Mustang magazine and a little bottle of chocolate milk the next night, and I'd spend my lunch breaks sitting in his room talking about cars and life every single time he was part of my assignment. Chandler always had a smile, and words that were uplifting and inspiring. He will always have a special place in my heart and I'm so happy I had the chance to get to know him. If/when I ever finish this 95 GT (the same one we talked about the night we met), I'm dedicating the first start to Chandler - he would love that.

This is one of the best memories you could share. Thank you so much

Dawn Winfree Brown - November 06, 2022 at 11:35 AM

So happy he had so many great ppl that helped him with his time when he was sick. I'm so heartbroken for everyone involved. I remember everything from elementary school to high and church and then always skating...just so many memories that are literally not enough 💔 I pray and can't wait till I see him again def with a mustang and he can finally give me that ride he promised lol I love yall and God is gonna have some trouble lol but so much fun!!
