“ my dearest Chaney,
no matter where i am in life i never forget to give remembrance to you and your memory. which comes naturally for me. i want you to know that i am doing better these days and i do believe i found someone worthy of sitting in your rocking chair beside me as age takes its place. i been waiting on him since you left us and im so thankful that you sent him to me. i still long for the day that i can dance with you again but till that time comes Chris has perfectly filled your shoes. i love you and cherish all the memories we shared. you always have my love as i have yours. xoxoxoxo

“ My Dearest Chaney, it's been nearly 6 years since you left us. And tonight as I was writing in my journal I had a feeling come over me that gave me chills and butterflies. A feeling that could only come from your touch. Then I was flooded with millions of memories of our life together. You gave me the best years of my life . You will always be my "7 year itch". With all that is going on in my life right now , the remainder of our crazy but amazing 7 years together was just the destruction I needed tonight. You never cease to amaze me, even from the grave you somehow find your back to me, to comfort me, to remind me, to make me smile again. I love you still with all my being. I gave my heart to you in 2000 and you have cherished it from day 1. You even took it to heaven with you. No one has ever or could ever love me like you do. Someday soon we shall dance together again. Till then I hold you in my heart and wait for your spiritual visit. I can always feel when you enter the room. My ears tingle And I delight in the sound of your infectious laughter. And the low soft tone of your voice as I can clearly hear you whisper in my ear...I love you always.
