“ Shocking to hear of Wally's passing. Enjoyed sitting around and talking with him for a lot of years. Been a while since I saw him. Great person!

“ Wally, a lot of people remember the bad things from their childhood, but I remember the fun we had in the summers in Jamestown Estates. Playing pool in your basement with Van Halen on the verge of bursting your speakers, summer olympics, three-wheelers, football in the James's front yard..... I couldn't wait for every summer to get there. I'll never forget those times with you and the rest of the guys. Rest easy, my friend!
