“ Poppy, you were not only my dad you were a very special person of God, I ahve always appreciated you for your love and needs to me and my kids.. and my sibilings and their kids, we all love you !! you were a Giver in many ways ! you taught me to never be a Taker. I pray that thru it all, mom will have some peace to live without you ! she loved you dearly !! We will miss you so much, Right before you passed, you held my hand for so long, I didnt want to turn loose ! But thank you for the song you sang us and the laughs as well.. I will never forget that day !! I love you Poppy !!

“ Charles was one of the most dedicated Christians that I ever knew. He was my barber for over 35 years and a Christian mentor. I miss those many mostly Saturday mornings getting a haircut and talking about the Lord. I am sorry for your loss and the family is in my prayers. Charles is now in the Lord's presence waiting for his loved ones.
