“ Al was so happy when Charles sat and chatted with him while he was on the IV (at one of our square dances) That was so thoughtful for Charles to do

The Kreches

We also remember the big smile Charles had when he danced his first dance after his heart surgery and re-hab.

Frances, my heart goes out to you. I just learned of Charles passing. He was a good friend. Mac and I enjoyed square dancing with both of you. You both did so much to promote square dancing and I want to thank for all you both did. God bless you and your family. Please call me if I can help you, Yellow Rocks, Sue McClure
