“ I remember Charles fondly. He often said the best thing he did for Miracle Hill was hiring me. I'm not sure that was true, but I am grateful that he saw potential in me.

My thoughts and prayers are with you now. I know God will be with you during your sorrow and the smiles you share as you remember your time with Charles.##imported-begin##Susan Pottberg##imported-end##

“ For the entire family. You know you have always been part of my family and always will. There were only three men that i can say my Daddy truly loved outside his immediate family and of course Bro. Groover was one of them. I truly feel I have lost a loved one too. I would have most certainly been there today had Russell not been ill. Peggy you helped me through a tough time once and we also have some fun memories. Carolyn you and your family are certainly family. I have no doubt that you would be there for me and you were for Mama if I ever needed any of you. Johnny, we have been friends since I can remember being alive and I think that you know I always have and always will be here for you if you need me. Love you all so much.
