*Do not stand at my grave and weep,
I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am in a thousand winds that blow,
I am the softly falling snow.
I am the gentle showers of rain,
I am the fields of ripening grain.
I am in the morning hush,
I am in the graceful rush*

*Of beautiful birds in circling flight,
I am the starshine of the night.
I am in the flowers that bloom,
I am in a quiet room.
I am in the birds that sing,
I am in each lovely thing.
Do not stand at my grave bereft
I am not there. I have not left.*

“ David & McKayla, Wallace & Brenda, and David and family, Cheryl was truly one of the kindest, sweetest, most gentle people I have ever known. Nothing can erase how you feel about losing her, but you can take comfort in knowing that she is completely healed and better now that she has ever been. I'm sure she and my Daddy are having a great time right now! Instead of saying rest in peace, I prefer to think of them running, jumping, dancing, and singing because they are with God! We will be praying for you during the coming weeks.

“ I remember living down the street from Cheryl when we were very young little girls and I have never met another person who was a sweet and always had a smile on her face. Her love for God always came out in her and I know that she is walking the streets of gold now. Heaven welcomed an angel and earth lost an angel, and I will never lose the memories that she left on my heart! I will miss you my sweet friend!
