I grew up with Cheryl in Duncan. When we were little she lived next door to my Aunt Magaret and Uncle James Corne, when we visited Cheryl and I played together. We went from 1st grade to Graduation together. We were also Girl Scouts. She was always a kind and gentle soul. We were so lucky to live our small town life. Her father and mine (Charles Corne Sr.)also grew up together so our history was long and deep. She will be missed hugs and prayers to the family.
