“ To my dearest brother Clifford,

I am so deeply sorry for your loss. I know you are hurting deeply right now and I want you to know that I too am hurting so much for you. We certainly are no strangers to the pain brought by the loss of loved ones. Are we, my brother? I cannot imagine there can be any greater pain on earth than that brought on by the loss of my child. It seems so unnatural and unfair. I know it is not easy to understand or accept.

I do not pretend to know God's plan or all of his ways. All I know is that in order to get through times like these, I have to trust and believe that his love, power and knowledge are far greater than mine. I have to believe that in his infinite wisdom he has a far greater plan and need for Cheryl to be with him than we here on earth can ever imagine or understand.

Please know in your heart, although I cannot physically be there for you right now, that I am with you always in my thoughts and my prayers and in my heart.

Please express my most sincerest and deepest sympathy to the rest of the family for me and accept my apology for not being able to be with you today.

I love you and I'm here for you.

Your sister,

“ G'ma and Andrea,

I am sincerely sorry for the loss of your daughter and mother. I know it is so very hard even though we know it is coming that never makes it any easier. Nothing can prepare us for the death of a loved one. I am here if you need me.

Again, I am so sorry that you have to experience this.

Love you both,
