“Wow...there are so many memories of my sister and I. Going to garage sales...thrift stores or just shopping for bargains. My boys here in Florida loved receiving their Xmas presents because you never...ever knew what goodies she had gotten for them. I think sometimes she forgot how old they were at times.. haha. She never forgot about the unfortunate. She made up gift baskets...etc to help anyone out. I remember sitting at the kitchen table with her and cracking jokes and our Mom would try to keep up with us but would say things that would make our jokes even funnier. She is so loved and will be missed. Rest in peace Sister...you are out of pain and hanging with Mommy, Daddy, Keith and our beloved Onyx❤️❤️❤️

“Aunt Chris was the female version of my late father, her brother Keith. That infectious laugh and mischievous sense of humor our family cherished over the years. Aunt Chris treated everyone she knew with kindness but never sugarcoated what she thought. I always admired her for that. The Southern Belle from Long Island haha. I'll never forget visiting you down in SC and going yard sale'n early one Saturday Morning. I had so much fun hunting down treasures with you. Rest easy now God Mom. I'm glad you're at peace.

Chris was a very kind and generous person. She always made me feel welcome when with her. She enjoyed laughing and talking with my late husband She and he were a riot together with the comebacks and jokes. Miss her and all the wonderful memories
