“ I was blessed to have had Chris as my roommate at Clemson. We shared so many great experiences, from having a simple meal together to rooting on the Tigers at a big game. Chris made these things more enjoyable by just being the good and genuine person that he was. He was a true friend enriched my life. My family and I will be praying for the comfort of the Strange family as God replaces your grief with happy memories and the joy of knowing that even now Chris is reunited with his dad in the presence of our Savior.
