“ Dear Belues,

I had the distinct honor and gracious privilege to teach Christian in my World History class when he was a 7th Grader. Immediately, Christian brought a warmth and a light to my last period of the day, and I always looked forward to his class and what he would bring to it through his kindness, his stories, and his insightful questions. Christian was funny but could be serious and his character was evident as he never spoke unkind words about anyone (pretty rare in middle school). I felt he had a maturity that transcended his peers as he, to me, was like a "little adult" back then.

My heart is made sad by the news of his passing. His light on this side was too brief, I feel selfishly. Christian made my days at Greer Middle School much better and my life as a teacher much more blessed. He was interested in my military service and seemed to have a genuineness that few others had. Christian simply got it!

You did a wonderful job raising Christian to the fine young man he was. Your testimony in forgiving and praying for the young lady who pulled out in front of him honors Christian.

As a motorcycle rider myself, I know how dangerous it can be to ride, and how difficult it can be for people to see motorcycles and motorcyclists. I know Christian loved life, his family, and his dogs. I am proud to be able to have had Christian on my attendance roll, as I am happy to know he is in the Lamb's Book of Life and is waiting for us in Heaven.

Thank you for the nice picture of Christian posted here, as it captures him perfectly as I remember Christian.

Sincerely,

Robert Wootton

“ I was always close with Christian and his family I love them all to death, there like my second family it's so hard to believe that he is gone just like that. Christian is an amazing friend the best one I have ever had, we used to tell each other everything he always knew when I was upset or mad, and he found a way to help me with that he always made me laugh when I was at my lowest and he just made everyone so happy when he was around it's just so crazy he's gone it's unbelievable I will always love Christian and he will always have a place in my heart as my best friend
