“ Christie,

What can I say? It is funny where this thing called life will lead sometimes. We are not promised tomorrow so we live life the best we can. I will cherish the memories of when we were children. Even though your life was cut short you brought six children into this world may your spirit live in them.

Love your Brother Kenny###imported-begin##Kenny###imported-end##

“ In our deepest regrets of the lose of your love one. We send our deepest sympathy to your children along with yourselfs. Christy will be missed by us along with her family. If there is nothing words can do to bring her back it is that we continue to prays because, we do not know the heartache in your time of lose other than our fellings and cannot bring her back. She is now in the gates of heaven and God has took her pain and suffering away. We love u and your children. Always, The Cook Family###imported-begin###Brian, Magen, James and Victoria###imported-end##
