“ When me and Christina first met we did not like each other at all . We grew on each other and I'm glad we did! She had a big loving heart and a kind soul! We all went out one night and I had a blast with her she really was a fun person and was a good friend. Praying for the family and rip girl it's not goodbye it's see you again one day!! To beautiful for earth!!

“ We weren't the common everyday family but we made it work. Through thick and thin and all the ups and downs we got through it. Don't worry about nothing you know me I got this under control the kids will be fine I promise you that. We love you and we will always keep you in our hearts and never forget you. Love Jermaine 🥺🤔

Jermaine I am sorry to hear about Christina's passing. Continue to be the dad that you have always been to Ethan and Chasity. They are lucky to have you. I know this will be difficult but stay strong for them.
