

Christine Ross Matsko

December 22, 1926 - October 17, 2021

Christine Ross Matsko, 94, wife of the late Peter “Pete” Matsko, passed away October 17, 2021.

A native of Greenville County, daughter of the late Furman Andrew and Irene Simmons Ross, she was the owner and operator of Ross Grocery and a member of Pelham First Baptist Church.

The greatest gift is the gift of giving. Christine gave of herself as a caregiver to many family members. She wasn’t in the medical profession but was often told she should have pursued nursing. She was devoted to her husband who suffered Lewy Body Dementia, a nurse mate to her father who suffered a stroke and to her mother who lived to be 106 years old.

Known as Tine or Tine Tine to her nieces and nephews, she was a precious and caring aunt. Tine was like a second mother as she loved and supported us all.

We will miss her, but we have the assurance that we will see her when we experience the splendor of heaven.

Surviving is one sister, Lois Satterfield of Greenville and numerous nieces, nephews, great-nieces, and great-nephews.

She was predeceased by three brothers, Gettys Ross, Wilburn Ross, and Charles Ross and one sister, Catherine Byars.

A graveside service will be held 1:00 p.m. Thursday, October 21, 2021, at Woodlawn Memorial Park conducted by Rev. Patrick Clark.

Visitation will be held after the service at the cemetery.

The family respectfully request that mask be worn at the service and visitation.

The family is at their respective homes.

Memorials may be made to Pelham First Baptist Church Family Life Center, 2720 S. Old Highway 14, Greer, SC 29651.
