

Christopher Iain Robson

November 18, 1988 - January 26, 2014

Christopher Iain Robson, son of Iain and Lilly Robiso Robson, he was born November 18, 1988 in Great Falls, Montana. Chris grew up a very happy boy who loved playing with his childhood friends, never showing prejudice to anybody and standing up for those who were underprivileged. He attended Sunnyside Elementary School in Great Falls, Montana and finished Mauldin High School, eventually enrolling in Greenville Technical College. His first job was at Frankie's Fun Park, he then moved to Sticky Fingers downtown Greenville and later to The Lazy Goat as server and bar back. He loved snowboarding in the hills of Montana, playing soccer in the MESA/CESA Recreation Department where he had several famous plays as striker and goal keeper. Traveling, camping, fishing, and paddle boarding were amongst some of his other favorite activities. He always had a knack for bringing out his artistic side by creating intricate clay figurines, later bringing to light a strong sense of fashion and an admiration for architectural structures both old and new. He started his own business 'Topher's Photography' gaining his first contract with Furman University. His sudden passing on January 26, 2014 brought his young life to a tragic end for our material world. God has allowed us to enjoy his presence for the past 25 glorious years and we pray and thank God for those precious times we all were able to share with him. We will all miss his laughter and the bright energy he brought into our lives. Chris, we love you and thank you for everything. You are a precious son and we are very proud of you!

Also surviving are his grandmother, Doris Lilly Robson of Greer; his sister and brother-in-law, Carmella and Mike Foster of Charleston; his newly born nephew, Gabriel Foster; and his partner, Jay Schwartz who he loved very much.

MY

“ To our dear friend Jay and Chris' family,
We hope this poem will bring a little comfort to your hearts.

*"Feel no guilt in laughter, he'd know how much you care.
Feel no sorrow in a smile that he is not here to share.
You cannot grieve forever; he would not want you to.
He'd hope that you could carry on the way you always do.
So, talk about the good times and the way you showed you cared,
The days you spent together, all the happiness you shared.
Let memories surround you, a word someone may say
Will suddenly recapture a time, an hour, a day,
That brings him back as clearly as though he were still here,
And fills you with the feeling that he is always near.
For if you keep those moments, you will never be apart
And he will live forever locked safely within your heart "*

Chris, we will always love and miss you.

“ I don't really know what to say. I first met Chris in 2005 at Frankie's Fun Park, where we were both employed. This was not only a job to us but also the start of a great friendship. There was a large group of us at Frankie's that became really close and kept our friendship strong even after this job. Chris went through some struggles in his life and asked me for advice on many of them. The last two years of Chris's life i only got to see him two times. Unfortunately our lives pulled us in two different directions. Two months ago he sent me a message on Facebook to hang out soon and I never got that chance. This is still very unreal to me and Chris you will never be forgotten! There were lots of great memories that I will cherish! Love you Chris and I will see you again one day!

“ *We just heard about Chris's passing. We feel as though we lost a son and my daughter Angie, she lost a brother. Jack and I remember Chris as a little boy who lived next door to us and was Angie's best friend. Angie was upset when you guys moved to South Carolina from Montana and we missed all of you but especially Angie missed Chris. They were inseparable. Our hearts break for you Iain and Lilly and Carmela and all of the people whose lives Chris touched. We will miss him very much. A beautiful light has gone out of our lives.
Love you all, Mary, Jack and Angie Hoffman.*

“ I've been trying to think of the right words to say, but there just aren't any. There are holes in people's lives where you should be, and there are no words for the family and friends who will spend the rest of their lives missing you. But everyone should be lucky enough to be so sorely missed, and it is a testament to how brightly your spirit still shines, that so many will always remember you, and smile. Rest in peace, my friend.

“ Our deepest condolences to the family of Chris Robson and to his partner Jay. We smile as we remember the many fun and happy times we spent with Chris. But we feel such sorrow as we think about how young he was, with so many plans and dreams not yet fulfilled. It was just a few weeks ago that we were with Chis enjoying a wonderful dinner at one of Greenville's most beautiful restaurants, catching up with each other. We talked about his new photography business and viewed his portfolio on his iPhone. His creativity was obvious and we were very excited for him. We knew Chris as a kind and gentle spirit. We will miss him, and we know that those who loved him most deeply will be changed forever by this tragic loss. Chris, may God hold you forever in His loving embrace, free from all hurts, free from all sadness.
