“ I met Chris at MWSS 272. He was in the branch clinic and was assigned to the Motor Transportation Platoon for a while. Later we rode motorcycles together. He took care of me through my knee surgeries. A true FRIEND/BROTHER!! I MISS YOU EVERY DAY!

“ Kathy, So sorry to hear of Chris's passing. Will never forget the Halloween that we dressed him and Caren up and took them to Bennigans to trick or treat. Also have other great memories at Lake Bently. My heart goes out to you. Love, Ginna

“ I knew Chris years ago when he was stationed at Great Lakes Naval Base. I met my husband through him and my best friend. He will always be a great man and a great friend. We all lost contact long ago. So sorry to hear of his passing. My husband is extremely saddened and regrets losing touch with each other throughout the years. Prayers to every one of his family and friends.
