“ Mr. Eaglen was such a breath of fresh air, he would come in the pharmacy I work in and always be humming his own personalized tunes. He always showed kindness and compassion and you could tell he loved his wife so much. I will miss seeing him pull up and bring everyone else with him, we always joked about how he would come and everyone else would pile up behind him. He had such a giving heart and would bring us food often and a kind smile. When I would sympathize to him that I hoped he would feel better if he wasn't, he would just say “i don't care, it's just life” and shrug off any negativity. I wish I had known the last time I saw him would be the last time so I could give him a hug. I will miss him very much.
