“ One of my memories of Chuck was his love for bringing Christmas cheer. The neighborhood would decorate; we would put luminaries on the street; and Chuck would dress up as Santa and give out peppermint candy to the people in the cars that came to see our lights.

Wow.....to celebrate Christmas with the One whose birthday we honor this time of year! We'll miss you so much down here. Hi to everyone for us! See you soon!

“ Only a few hours before Chuck went Home to the Lord, my husband and I were talking about his and Lynn's time in Daytona over Thanksgiving. He told us that his Dad was a Milkman and that he would deliver milk with him on Christmas Eve and very early on Christmas Day. He had a gleam in his eye when he said he saw an old milk delivery truck made into a hot rod while at Daytona. He mentioned that would be his next project. Words can't express how much we will miss our neighbor, his stories, and tremendous kindness.
