“ To the Family: we are saying prayers for all of your family at this time of grieving the loss of Clarence, but at the same time, celebrating his life and his entrance into heaven. He will be there to greet all of you, and us. He gave us smiles and kindness whenever we saw him. God will be with you as you go through these next few days, and will never leave you alone anytime. Praying for you to have peace and feel His love always. Kenneth & Kathryn Smith's daughter and son-in-law, Kerry and Tony Bonniville

“ Vivian and Tracy, I am so sorry to hear of the passing of my cousin Clarence! Daddy sure loved him. I have fond memories growing up going to the Winn-Dixie and seeing him. Daddy wouldn't leave till we talked to Clarence. He was more like an uncle to me than cousin but I'll always remember his smile and his laugh. We pray that his happy memories will see you through the hard times.
Our sweet Mother just entered Heaven Saturday, January 9, I'm sure she and Daddy were there to greet one of Daddy's most loved nephews into Heaven. Much love, Kathy Smith McGee and family
