“ To the Smith/ Lara family,

It saddens me when I hear about the deaths of good people especially those whom I grew up knowing for many years, and hearing about Clarence was no exception. I can think of several memories of him during all those years I grew up with Heather since we were neighbors including a time he and I played a game of Checkers in Heather's bedroom. At least it's good to know that he's in Heaven now, but I know until the rest of you all get there that you will miss him now and then. I'm praying for you all.

“ In remembrance of C.D.'s life there are many memories that come to mind. His resounding laughter and love of a good joke will always be one of my fondest memories. In my mind there will always exist an example he set of love and caring for his fellow man as well as what commitment to family and friends really means. I know he will be missed but always fondly remembered. Our thoughts are with you now and always...may you find comfort in the reflection of his love that you will see in others in these coming days.

“ CD - I'm happy for you my brother in life and my brother in Jesus Christ our Lord. Scripture assures us that "absent from the body" is "present with the Lord" so I know you are with our Lord now, and more alive than you've ever been! PTL! I imagine that you have found your good friend Buddy (and probably lots of other family and friends) and you all have gone fishing somewhere! I love you and look forward to our reunion as coheirs in the coming kingdom!
