“ Kay,

I just wanted to reach out to you and let you know how very sorry I am for your loss. I know that nothing I can say to you will make your grief subside, but I love you and have missed you, and if there is anything that you need, anything at all, please know I am here. Please also pass along to your daughters and the rest of your family how truly sorry I am and that each of you will be in my prayers.##imported-begin##Melody Fletcher##imported-end##
