“ My husband and I are neighbors of this wonderful man, and I would come home in the morning from working my nightshift to find fresh veggies in a bag attached to the hand rail at my front door! I knew he had been out in his garden. He was always so kind. I already miss seeing him in his little white truck driving by waving at me or pulling up just to say hello. I feel so blessed to have been able to meet him and his wife. And enjoy the times I was able to visit with them. We are so sorry for the family's loss. He will truly be missed.
