

Clyde W. Duncan

November 2, 1935 - June 20, 2025

Clyde Wendell Duncan, a devoted husband, loving father, cherished grandfather and proud great-grandfather, passed away peacefully on June 20, 2025, in Jasper, Georgia. He was 89 and lived a life full of faith, love and laughter. Clyde will be deeply missed and forever remembered by all who knew him.

Clyde was married to the love of his life, Gail Duncan, for 71 beautiful years - a remarkable bond rooted in faith, devotion, and enduring love. Together, they built a family grounded in compassion, strength, and joyful connection. A man of deep faith, Clyde loved Jesus and was an active member of his church community throughout his life. He lived his faith daily through quiet acts of kindness, steadfast commitment to family, and his unwavering moral compass.

Clyde was an avid golfer who enjoyed countless days on the greens, sharing laughs and friendly competition. He also loved a good card game, especially when it brought friends and family together around the table.

He is survived by his wife, Gail Duncan; his son, Joey Duncan and his wife, Kim; and his daughter, Kitty Murphy and her husband, Jim. He was a proud grandfather to Kristin Terry, Casey Murphy, Brant Duncan, Nick Duncan, Fisher Duncan and Joseph Toby. His great-grandchildren, Landon, Declan, and Amerie, brought him immeasurable joy and pride. Clyde was the last of 12 children and left a loving clan of nieces, nephews, and their families that will carry on the Duncan family legacy.

A service to celebrate the life of Clyde W. Duncan will be held 1:00 p.m. Friday, June 27, 2025, at Taylors First Baptist Church, Taylors, SC, conducted by Rev. Jerry Long and Rev. Daryl Hopkins. Burial will be private.

Receiving of family and friends will be held from 11:30 a.m. until 12:30 p.m. Friday, June 27, 2025, in the gathering space at Taylors First Baptist Church.

In lieu of flowers, the family encourages acts of kindness in his memory or contributions to your local church or community in his honor.
