“ Debra and Ann, I am sorry to read that Aunt Pauline passed. It has been many years since I had seen her last, but I have some fond memories. One was when Aunt Mary Sue gave me a chocolate Easter Bunny in 1973 and Aunt Pauline had just bought a new red catty with white seats. She was so angry when she looked in the rear view mirror to see me munching on the melting bunny while sitting on her white leather seats! I have more...Contact me if you want to talk about them. “ Debra and Ann, I am sorry to hear of Polly's death, but happy to know she is safe with Jesus. She was truly a great and gallant lady and a real beauty. I was blessed having known her. She was an important part of Rev Jenkin's ministry and he spoke of her with great love and affection. God bless you all and be comforted in your hearts for she is now in Heaven with many of her other loved ones. Glory be to God, Amen.
