“ Corbin,
you were such a nice guy adn I couldn't ask for anyone better to talk to then you. I remember that day you forgot to leave a tip and then the next time you left me like a ten. :) I miss seeing you sitting there on that barstool and distracting me at work and making me laugh. I couldn't be at the restraurant without crying. Everything I did for you that day you passed away I'm sure if you saw it but honestly it doesn't matter because I know that from what I do here on out you will see. I love you so much Corbin, I will not hesitate to strive for you memory to never be loss. That's I built the memorial and that why I will never let it go untouched EVER on a November 3rd day. Corbin watch over us please and take us under your beautiful white wings because god only knows how much we need it. I know we dated and it didn't work because we were friends but what I do know is that movie we watched that first time ever meeting with Lezlie and Brandon was extremely creepy and you were tryin to explain what was going on and you don't know it but I was hiding behind you lol. Now everytime I watch it I cry. Anything that reminds me of you kills me because you're memory lives and I just wish it wasn't a memory but reality.##imported-begin##Amber Bridwell##imported-end##

“ We would like to share with you a little poem that was written by Mary Wygant of Cream Ridge, NJ, when our 16-year-old son Francis William (Billy) died. May it give you some comfort in your grief.

*"Never too young to be with God,
Though it be a sorrowful day
For those on earth left alone and sad
To know he has gone away.
Never too young to be with God.
Just a little while ago
He came from God.
If God calls back the Loan,
It's surely better so."*

Notice that "Loan" is capitalized, thus making it a proper noun. We do not own our loved ones, but we are on loan to one another by our Heavenly Father, Creator-God. Therefore, we treat each other with respect and appreciation.

Are you acquainted with The Compassionate Friends, an international support fellowship for parents, siblings, families who have lost a child (of any age) in death? There are hundreds of local chapters of TCF in many areas throughout the USA and abroad. Perhaps you may find a chapter in your area by check the national and state websites for The Compassionate Friends.

You are in our thoughts and prayers. We also lost an 11-year-old grandson, Colin James Turton, in June 2010. We can identify with your sorrow and pray God's presence to be real in your lives.##imported-begin##Pastor Bob and Sandy Turton, PO Box 175, Hightstown, NJ 08520--0175##imported-end##

“ To the Lindsey family, Both Roger and I were extremely saddened to read of the loss of your son and grandson. We know only Bill as a newfound cousin in the Lindsey family, and we have been honored to know you as a friend. We know how deep is your grief and realize the time it will take for the hurt to ease. Our thoughts and prayers go out to you. Sincerely, Judy and Roger##imported-begin##Judy and “ I am so sorry to hear about Corbin. I didn't know him or Eli, but work with Carolyn (Eli's Mom). I don't know what I can say except, but I am so sorry and I have prayed and will continue to pray for the family. God calls his angels home way too soon sometimes, and we don't understand when so soon, but he has a plan. I will continue to Eli, and for this family to find peace.###imported-begin##Tracy Reynolds###imported-end##

“ I recall a day in his second grade year where Corbin heard the cries of a young lady, my daughter, who had a ball stolen from her on the playground. The next day he returned to school only to give her a new one of which he had asked his mother to go to the store and purchase with him. Corbin's contagious smile will be sorely missed as we share in the pain of your loss. Thoughts and prayers to all those that are morning the loss of a wonderful young man!##imported-begin##Terri, Taylor and GlennLivingston##imported-end##
