Wayne, Candy & Tony my thoughts and prayers are with you all and your families. May you all find peace in remembering all the love you had for your Mother and she had for you. The things I remember about Aunt Duck was her smile and the wonderful gifts she gave me as a child when we were growing up. Cousin Debbie

Duck, you have left me with with so many wonderful memories of our times together. We met in 1979 and had some wonderful times at the Christmas parties at your house, working at GNP together, bowling leagues and just hanging out. I will treasure those memories and our friendship. I will never forget you or that smile. You will be missed! To your wonderful family, my thoughts and prayers are with you all.
