“ Louise, B.J. and Angie:

This is Zachary Johnson, you probably remember my Dad, Ray Johnson, and my mother Anita. We used to live across the street from you guys in Fairmont. Louise, I am sure you can remember me coming over as a small child wanting you to play with me.

On behalf of my family, i would like to send my condolences. Your family has always meant alot to the Johnson's, and in this difficult time I would like send my sympathies.

Cotton, from what I remember, was a good man, and was always kind to me. I am sorry I was unable to attend the funeral home last night, however, you guys were on my mind. My father has always spoken highly of Cotton as well.

As a family, take time to grieve and to remember the wonderful years God blessed you with Cotton in your lives. I know it is hard, however, there will come a day that you all will be reunited in the glory of God.

Take care.##imported-begin##Zachary David Johnson##imported-end##

“ Remembering Cotton back in the days of the Fairmont Jams, etc. We all hung together, and had fun times. I'm so sad to hear that he has left this world so young at heart. My prayers and blessings go out to Cotton, and his new life in the holy land, as well as to his family and friends for their loss.
