“ I just learned today that Curtis died. I'm so sad to see that. He was so young. Same age as my dad and one of his best friends, John Fairley. Curtis and dad took me on many paddling trips and ski trips growing up. I'm actually skiing this Weekend up at beech mountain and thought how cool it would be to invite Curtis and Gary next time I come. I looked him up on Facebook and saw this. This hit me like a ton of bricks and I know his family misses him dearly. He was such a good man. So incredibly kind. Such a great outdoorsman! He taught me a lot. We'll cross paths again.

“ Curtis was a true gentleman, he was always kind to everyone he met. He had an infectious smile. We paddle our kayaks together often, every day with Curtis was a treat. He loved life and his beautiful wife and daughter. Rest in peace, Curtis.

“ Curtis was a dear friend, and was one of the nicest people I have ever met. I had the honor to kayak with Curtis many times over the last few years. We shared a lot of rivers, and had a lot of fun. He often spoke fondly of his wife and daughter, and loved them dearly. He will be missed by all who knew him.
