

Dalton Lindsey

September 23, 1996 - January 21, 2025

Dalton John Bruce Lindsey, 28, passed away January 21, 2025.

A native of Greer, South Carolina, son of John Christopher “J.C.” Lindsey of Taylors, and the late Kelly Brenda Hawkins, he was a United States Marine Corps Veteran and was pursuing the family business in civil construction.

Dalton was baptized at Locust Hill Baptist Church at a young age and later attended Springwell Church and the Blue Ridge Men’s Discipleship.

Surviving in addition to his father are a brother, Nathan McCutcheon (Victoria) of Taylors; a niece, Ansleigh Michelle McCutcheon; a nephew, Lucas William McCutcheon; a paternal grandmother, Estela R. Lindsey of Taylors; an aunt, Michelle Hawkins; an uncle, Matthew F. Lindsey (Michelle) of Taylors; and cousins, Eden Reece Lindsey, Cruz Lindsey, Jordan Carpenter and Keri McKittrick.

He was predeceased by his paternal grandfather, Franklin Mack Lindsey, and an aunt, Maria Christina Lindsey.

A private funeral service and committal with military honors will be held in the Lindsey Family Cemetery, Taylors, South Carolina, conducted by Rev. Tim McConnell.

Visitation will be held 4:00 – 8:00 p.m. Tuesday, January 28, 2025, at The Wood Mortuary.

The family will be at their respective homes.

“ For many years Dalton was a part of our family. My daughter was a mother to Dalton for 8 years. Dalton loved our family and participated in family functions after that. He was a rascal as a young boy, that grew into a fine young man. I witnessed his salvation and baptism at Locust Hill where Lacey brought him regularly. My heart goes out to this family after losing 2 precious family members. Love and prayers, Cathy Arrowood

Although we didn't get to see Dalton for too long, he was the finest young man we had the pleasure to meet. He was funny, kind, considerate, generous, great storyteller and a steak lover! Rest in Peace young man, and to the family, what a great loss. I'm so sorry. Peace be with you.
