“ Danny made my childhood and life so fun. He always had a joke or a smart comment and loved to argue (in a good way). Some of the most fun times I can remember as a kid is when Danny would come visit and we'd play games like yahtzee. As a teen and into adulthood, I loved playing pool with him (he always won) and listening to music on full blast. Danny really had a way of making people feel loved.

“ If you ever needed a shoulder to cry on, Danny was your man. If you needed a laugh, Danny was your man. If you needed to feel loved, Danny was your man. If you needed someone to confide in and never have to worry about it being exposed, Danny was your man. I have been so blessed to be able to call him big brother. Our family will never be the same, but we have comfort and peace knowing he is with Jesus and our mama, and HE HAS LEGS AGAIN! Danny you're going to missed for a while but we will see you again. Love ya, Baby!

“ I will always remember going to his house when I was little and he could always share a joke that me and siblings thought was hysterical. Everytime we would leave his house me and family would shout, "we love ya baby" from the car window, as he waved from his porch and shouted back, "love ya baby!"
