“ Ronnie, Ryan and Mark and all family members we send our love, and condolences during this difficult time. Danny was my first cousin, Aunt Nanette was a sister to my dad, Kenneth Smith. Danny was a sweet, kind, and gentle person. We lived next door for a while growing up and enjoyed many times playing together when we were very young. He married Susan White, which was a nice surprise because she and I went to school together and she was always fun to be around. They were a good match because she was outgoing and he was more shy. They both will be missed, but their memory will live forever.

“ Thinking of Danny throughout my life has always been a pleasure due to kindness, sweetness and his gentle nature. The Easter egg hunts at Granny Smith's each year for a while were always so much fun, and having Danny share in that (and other things) was a joy. There are other happy memories of Danny I will cherish and hold in my heart. For the family, please know I am with you in prayer and thoughts as you are going through this time of sadness as you are missing your special loved one. He has now joined our family circle in heaven, and someday, we shall, also. Take care.
