“ I am so sad hearing the news of Daniel passing. He was a dear friend since we were in high school together. We didn't see each other often but when we did it was like no time had passed. My deepest sympathies to Ylva, Alex, Jordan and Megan. Also to the family I remember....his Mom, Barb, brothers Jodie, Teddy, Tommy and sister Cynthia. May you all find peace in your loving memories.

“ Dan was a friend and colleague for many years working together at Xerox. As a Southern IL native myself, Dan and I shared stories from SIU area and grounds we both covered long before we knew one another. Dan was a skilled and valuable professional in his work, but most importantly was the love he shared of his family. Wishing the family peace and comfort, along with the courage to face the days ahead with loving memories to forever hold in your heart..

“ Dan was a great man inside and out. Truly devoted to his family and work. We worked together for many years covering two main accounts NHRMC and PPD in Wilmington. He worked side by side with me taking care of these accounts. We became great friends and colleagues! He kept me level set and always focusing on the positive things. He always spoke of his family and how much he loved them when we would be together. I will miss this man! Prayers to his family. Heaven gained an angel for sure! Miss you already sincerely Micah Booth

“ Frankie and I were very saddened to learn of the passing of Dan. He was a good friend and neighbor. I'll always remember him working in the yard with his dog by his side. The neighborhood will not ever be the same without him. Dan was a reliable and strong presence and will forever be missed. Our thoughts and prayers go out to the family.

“ To all the members and friends of The Richardson family:

I / We are all deeply saddened by this news and will always remember Dan as a caring, considerate, intelligent, and passionate person who made all those he came in contact with smile. I was able to get to know Dan through our mutual employment with Xerox and he was a friend to me and many. Our thoughts, prayers, love, and hearts go out to his family and all of those who knew him and had the pleasure of being in his company. May God bless you all and provide comfort and healing during this time.
