“ I never got to meet Daniel, but I was lucky enough to have once spoken with him. I know Sarah very well, which is how I knew about Daniel, and I wish some words of mine could offer some comfort, but I feel the best I can do is to keep your family in my thoughts and prayers, so that is what I will do. May God be with you all during this most difficult time, and may you look forward to the day that you will see him again.##imported-begin##Jeffrey D. Slater##imported-end##

“ Jeff, I was deeply saddened to hear about the loss of Daniel. I don't know if you remember me, but I accompanied you and your Scout troop to Charleston in 2001 to help them work on their sailing merit badges. I remember Daniel well. He was a very well-mannered and bright young man and really picked up sailing. I remember that trip as one of the funnest trips I had ever been on. The group picture from that trip signed by everyone that went still hangs in my office. Take care and know my thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.##imported-begin##Jim Kirlin##imported-end##
