“ I was fortunate to meet Danny about twenty years ago as our paths crossed in Williams Brice Stadium in section 504. I live about 200 miles from Greer in Mt Pleasant, and likely would have never met Danny and his sons had it not been for our mutual love of USC football. We hit it off immediately, and REALLY enjoyed the Gamecock friendship we formed over those years. When I changed seats, Danny, Derek, and Dustin moved with us. It won't be the same in Sec 504 without Danny. He was a loyal Gamecock fan and a darn good man. I'd like to share a lighthearted story about him at a very sad time for all that knew him. In 2012, USC pounded UGA 35-7, and as the UGA fans were filing out in the 4th quarter, Danny had a few of these type statements as they passed our seats, "have a good ride home", don't leave it's not over yet", and other type stuff. Anyway, I was trying to turn around to see who was coming down the steps from the visitors seats above us. I spotted this 'mountain of a man' coming down decked out in UGA gear. I quickly turned to Danny and pleaded, "Danny, please don't say anything to this next guy". I turned around and held my breath...A few seconds later I hear the following from Danny, "WHERE YA' GOIN' BIG BOY"? My heart dropped. I sheepishly looked over at that rather large human being, and he kind of grinned and kept on moving. WHEW! I'll miss Danny a lot, and hope that Derek and Dustin, me and my two sons continue our Sec 504 traditions. RIP in peace my friend and FOREVER TO THEE..

“ As teenagers I ran around with Danny and Donnie . We went to the same church at Jackson Mill Baptist back in the day and went to Wellford Baptist . We played softball for Wellford and had one of if not the best teams around . He was a good ball player and a good friend . He could eat a cheeseburger in three bites . I gave him a nick name as Jaws . Can't tell you what he nick named me . Even though we got older and didn't see each other much I will miss him. He was a good friend . Love you Danny !

I met Danny when I was a teenager and went to the same church. I babysat him and Donnie and we had some wonderful times. He was such a sweet person and every time I ran into him it was like we saw each other every day. He will be missed and I will be sending prayers for his family. God bless.
