“ He never gave up.

Uncle Danny "motoe" Neal

There are absolutely no words that can truly describe how i feel. As I try so desperately to put into words the tears continue to run down my face. If only you could see what i see. (I think you knew) you have touched so many lives in so many ways. Not a day goes by that i dont think of you. You have been such a wonderful, amazing, funny knowledgeable, hardworking, loving, quiet yet oh so talkative (okay maybe not always so talkative unless i was around...after all you know me..motormouth) uncle. For someone who talks so much i am having trouble finding the right words. Truth is..there are no words to describe the sadness i feel. If you could see how much of an impact you have had on my life and the lives of others. You were a friend to all with a heart of GOLD. I couldnt have prepared myself for these emotions i am experience after losing you. Your strength in fighting the most difficult battle of anyones life along with losing your best friend your love Marie to cancer is unwavering. You never gave up. You didn't give in. The cancer did not win on that terrible day. The cancer could NOT beat you. If cancer could speak im sure it would say it was in the underdog in the fight against you. You carried the strength of a thousand men. I just want to let the world know how much of man you really were. I cant thank you enough for all you have done for me these past four plus years. You took a chance on me and told Tom and GB about me. You didn't know if i would even make it.. i remember coming over and you loaned me twenty dollars for gas to start work. You bought me groceries for lunch at work. You passed some knowledge to me and i will FOREVER be Grateful. The most wonderful gift i could have been given was the chance to spend almost every day with you for 3 years. I love you so very much; now, tomorrow and FOREVER. Thank you for everything. Thank you for loving me. You were and always will be a legend.

Every man's heart one day beats its final beat, his lungs breathe their final breath. And if what that man did in his life makes the blood pulse through the body of others. He makes them believe deeper in something thats larger than life. Then his essence, his spirit will make what YOU did...live FOREVER.

“ Motoe texted me one day and said he had something he wanted me to have but I would have to come down from Flat Rock to get it. Its a Paul electric guitar which i will always remember him by. I hate goodbyes, so for now I'll just say "So long". I caught you on this plane, my friend.. I'll catch you on the next one...
