“ I never met Daphenel but spoke to her on the phone several years ago. I am a 1st cousin twice removed. My great grandfather Grady Brown McCuen was the brother to Daphenel's mother Ruth. Speaking with her, I felt like we had known one another a long time. She was a sweet lady and my prayers and thoughts go out to the family,

Mark, Jan and Joan so sorry in the passing of your mother. She was such a gracious lady. We have fond memories of her playing the piano at First Baptist Lyman. Our thoughts and prayers are with the entire family during this difficult time.
