“ So sorry to hear of the loss of Darryl. What a joy it has been to know him on this earth. He had a heart of gold and was always willing to help anyone. He was especially good with helping with the youth mentor program at the Greenville Woodworkers Guild. He inspired so many young people to work with wood and in the process instilled good character in them as well. Darryl was a master at woodworking, full of adventurous stories, and shared his life with others. Our daughter Madison was directly impacted by Darryl and we are forever grateful for his input into her life. It was a blessing to have known Darryl. Rest in peace and we will pray for those left behind.

“ Darryl was a fine man and a beloved member of the Woodworkers Guild. He had the distinction of being a Lifetime Member, as is his wife, Ruth. There are less than 15 Lifetime Members in an organization of over 700. Darryl dedicated many hours to the Guild, including the mentoring of the youth. He will be missed. Many thanks to the family for sharing him with us.

“ My father was the most decent man I ever knew. A friend to everyone, he spent his whole life teaching and assisting anyone he met. He will be sorely missed. I wish I was even half the man he was. He was the epitome of a wonderful person, a good citizen, and a helper to all. I love you Dad and miss you now more than ever
