“ I was so very sorry to hear of Daryl's passing. Although I didn't know him very well his sister Becky was a dear friend of mine all through high school and for years after. I have very fond memories of the Vogann family. My heart goes out to all of you. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

With love

“ I met Daryl when I was 17 , he gave me a kid who all he cared about was hanging with his friends and other useless activities he showed me the value a person can make them selfs by working hard learning a new craft I also would come to his house every single day after work cause I was best friends with his sons so if I wasn't doing something with him I was doing something with them he made everything seem like a reward just for doing something good the guy was as wild as they come but he was an amazing father figure he definitely will be missed but we all know he's reuniting with Jason going over old memories my heart just breaks to know we lost such an amazing person with a huge heart but he's in a better place
