“ I am so sorry for all Snooks' loved ones in this great loss , but happy for Snooks as he is in the presence of our Savior! He will have no more sorrow or pain! He was a special man, who loved his mother and family so much! You are all on my heart and in my prayers today and the coming days!

God bless you all and hold you close,

Karen McClure

“ My first memorable time with "Snooks" was when Doris and I traveled with the Hejaz Provost Guard group on several bus trips before I became a member of the unit. He was always a joy to be with. He was especially active in the promotion of our activities. Later I rode with him to learn the best route for my first unit meeting in Mauldin. He was a tremendous asset to the entire membership and a top Shriner. He will always be remembered.
